MAYOR DEMARIA AND CITY HOLD SUCCESSFUL FLU CLINIC

Mayor Carol DeMaria and the Everett Health Department held a successful flu clinic this past Saturday at the Lafayette School. The clinic was attended by 150 Everett residents ages 3 and up and was free of charge. The seasonal vaccine this year included protection against the seasonal and H1N1 vaccine strains. At this clinic they offered a traditional flu shot as well as the intradermal and high dose flu vaccine. The intradermal was an option for people ages 18 to 64. The high dose flu vaccine was available for people age 65 or older.
