MAYOR DEMARIA HOLDS SECOND ANNUAL HALLOWEEN BASH

On Monday, October 31st Mayor Carlo DeMaria, the YMCA, and the City of Everett came together to celebrate the City's second annual Halloween Bash.

Over three hundred children and their families flocked to the Recreation Center in their Halloween costumes. The event was kicked off by the kid's costume parade around Glendale Park. Attendees enjoyed an array of activities provided by Mayor DeMaria and the YMCA, arts and crafts, a performance by children's entertainer Phillip Alexander, and giveaways full of candy. The event also included hayrides around Glendale Park. All free of charge!

The children enjoyed a wonderful night of music, art, and play all to celebrate Halloween.
