THE CITY OF EVERETT HOLDS PUBLIC MEETING ON PROPOSED PARK DESIGN PLAN

On Tuesday, December 13th Mayor Carlo DeMaria welcomed residents to a public meeting at City Hall on the proposed re-design of Seven Acre Park. The park, located on the former GE site off of Air Force Road will be expanded to over 10 acres with numerous additional amenities including a playground, a river walk, viewing hill, and playing fields. The proposed design and development is being undertaken by the city in partnership with Wynn Boston Harbor.

Mayor DeMaria said, “I was encouraged by the great turnout for tonight’s meeting and appreciate residents’ suggestions. I know this park will become a tremendous waterfront asset for our residents to enjoy with their families for years to come. I am so excited to open up this space for active use and the enjoyment of all, and I am confident it will become a true gem for this region.
