MAYOR DEMARIA VISITS EVERETT GRACE FOOD PANTRY

Food Pantry celebrates five years of serving those in need

Mayor Carlo DeMaria recently visited with the Everett Grace Food Pantry, Founder, Richie DelRossi, and several local volunteers of the Pantry to congratulate them on their 5- year anniversary.

Founded in 2011, the Grace Food Pantry is a local volunteer organization with a long record of outreach and community service. With a mission to feed the poor, homeless, needy, isolated and hungry, as well as empower those being served.

“The Food Pantry is an extremely important service,” states Mayor DeMaria, “With the holiday season the Food Pantry helps families to celebrate by providing healthy, nutritious meals and allows for parents and Santa to deliver a few more presents to the kids.”

Under the leadership of the Everett Grace Food Pantry, along with Everett’s First Baptist Church, the Everett Food Pantry is open to Everett residents on the 3rd Sunday of the month from 8- 10AM at the First Baptist Church, located on 50 Church Street. Residents are distributed a bag of groceries, fruits and vegetables, can goods, eggs, and much more.

The Food Pantry always invites all to share in their richly rewarding work by volunteering your time, or by donating money or goods.
